A dispatch says that money is needed in Honolulu. In one respect at least Honolulu is thoroughly Americanized.

The good people of Greenwood county are right in using every effort to arrest and convict the scoundrels who recently perpetrated the outrages upon a few negroes of that county. The whole State of South Carolina has to suffer on account of the acts of these "whitecappers," who should be made to suffer for their conduct.

In the Democratic primary election of last year the vote on the whiskey question in Anderson County was as follows: Prohibition, 1888; Dispensary, 1431; License, 536. If the Democratic party would leave the question to be settled in the primary election next year, and agree to abide by the decision of the people, the dispensary law would be wiped out of existence. Let the people pass judgment on the law, and the result will forever settle the question.

Stat stician Wroth, of the Baltimore chamber of commerce, says: "The prospects of the growing crop of corn leaves scarcely anything to be desired. The acreage is nearly the largest ever given by this country, aggregating 81,556,000 acres. The largest previous area was in 1895, when the acreage was given at 82,000,000 acres and the production as 2,151,000,000 bushels. The largest crop ever grown here was in 1896, and was officially stated as 2,283,000,000 bushels. A crop of 2,200,000,000 bushels is indicated by the report of the agricultural department."

The August issue of the Southern Field, edited by Mr. M. V. Richards, land and industrial agent of the Southern railway, Washington, D. C., contains a variety of valuable information about the cities, towns and farming neighborhoods in the territory of the Southern railway, with suggestions for men seeking homes or locations for industries. The Southern Railway is a great and progressive system, and is leaving nothing undone that will tend to the development of the agricultural and manufacturing interests of every section of the South where its system touches.

The Southern Exposition in the city of New York, which will be held from the 31st of October to the 25th of November, is an important enterprise for the benefit of the South, which will advertise our matchless resources in natural and productive wealth. The exhibit from the South will show the wonderful progress made during the past quarter of a century in agriculture, mining, in manufactures and kindred industries and in educational science. South Carolina is represented on the advisory board of the Exposition by Gov. M. B. McSweney, Mayor J. Aldger Smyth, of Charleston, Congressman A. C. Latimer, of this County and Mr. Alister G. Furman, of Greenville.

Henry M. Neill, the New Orleans cotton expert, has announced his estimate of this year's cotton crop at 12,000,000 bales, the largest ever made. His estimates as to the crops of the past few years have been so near correct that the great cotton markets of the world believe him, and the price is bound to go down. The Government crop report for August issued on the 10th inst., puts the condition of cotton at 84 points out of a possible 100. This is the lowest August average for ten years past. South Carolina is foot in the cotton class with a per centage of 78. We hope Mr. Neill is mistaken in his estimate and will soon change his figures. Our only remedy is for the farmers to hold their cotton off the market for awhile.

The South Carolina farmers are getting profit and praise by their sensible diversification of crops. The New Orleans Daily States says of them that they are "evidencing the possession of some good, hard sense than those of some other States we could name. They are turning their backs upon cotton and the crop of tobacco this year is estimated at 20,000,000, worth from 4 to 26 cents a pound. Moreover, the cultivation of the wheat has been so successful that the acreage will likely be doubled next year." We sincerely hope that some of the farmers of Anderson County will experiment next season with a crop of tobacco. We are told that some of our land is adapted to the growth of tobacco, and that fine specimens have been grown here.

An exchange says: "Talk about your moral waves, but an epidemic of common honesty between man and man is what the country most needs. This way of scowling like a thunder-storm at the more open sins, while man's business obligations to his fellow man are disregarded is not even philosophy." There is not in all the books a more solid chunk of wisdom or decency than is contained in this paragraph. A man who will not pay his obligations gets up in meetings and subscribes some large amount to the preacher, to missions, to the poor, to the propagation of religion, when the best thing he could do would be to get some religion for himself. True Christianity will not allow any man to be generous before he is just. No human creature can recommend himself to Heaven by large alms and a disregard for his own obligations. A man who can afford to give in church has already settled his accounts or is ready and willing to do it without any delay. Are we right?

Does the Lord allow a man to sacrifice his neighbor in subscribing to the heathen? There are a lot of old white sepulchers up on the front seats going to the devil as fast as they can, because, while they are loud-mouthed in church, they are dishonest. They may pray loud and often, but in the last day they will learn that He never knew them.

In a circular letter to the Mayors and Intendants of cities and towns in the State, Gov. McSweney calls upon them for information relative to the enforcement of the liquor law. He calls their attention to the necessity of seeing the dispensary law rigidly enforced, and wants to know if he can depend upon these officers to assist him in enforcing the law, and that the violators of the same are arrested by the police and brought before the proper tribunals for trial. The Governor asks the aid and views of these officers. What he wants to know is will city and town councils give the aid necessary. As far as Anderson is concerned, the Governor may rest assured that he will have the hearty aid and co-operation of our city authorities. The dispensary law has always been enforced here, and to-day there is not even a suspicion of a "blind tiger" in this city.

Can a Man Hold Two Offices?

Mr. Editor: D. H. Russell, editor of the Peoples Advocate, as the writer has been informed and believes, now holds two offices—that of Magistrate and that of Census Supervisor for the Third Congressional District. (a) Can any one in this State legally hold two offices at one and the same time? (b) What will be the result of the cases that may be tried before D. H. Russell and sent up to Court, since he qualified as census Supervisor?

[Sec. 2 of Art. II of the Constitution says: "Every qualified elector shall be eligible to any office to be voted for, unless disqualified by age, as prescribed in this Constitution. But no person shall hold two offices of honor or profit at the same time; provided, that any person holding another office may at the same time be an officer in the militia or a Notary Public." It seems to us that this is very plain. The position of Magistrate is one office and that of Census Supervisor another, and commissions are issued in both positions. We are no lawyer, and do not know what would be the legal effect of any case sent up by Russell. The question could be answered by the Attorney General, and we suggest that "Citizen" refer to him. We remember a year ago when Mr. J. M. Smith, who was a member of the County Board of Control, was elected an Alderman of this city, the question was raised, and he was told that he would have to give up one of the positions. Under the Constitution of 1868, under a similar provision contained in the present Constitution, it was decided that when one holding an office accepts another incompatible therewith, he thereby vacates the first.—State vs. Butts, 9 S. C. 156. Also, his salary for the first office will cease from the time he accepts the second.—9 S. C. 359.—Editor.]

Reunion of Orr's Regiment.

The survivors of Orr's Regiment held their annual reunion at Sandy Springs last Wednesday. The attendance on the occasion was very large, and the exercises were exceedingly interesting to every one present. Since the last reunion Mrs. Mary J. Orr, the "mother of the Regiment," and Col. Miller, its last commander, have passed away. Capt. A. M. Guyton presided over the meeting. An election of officers took place, and Gen. R. R. Hemphill, of Abbeville, was elected President to succeed the late Col. Miller. All the other officers were re-elected. Gen. Hemphill read an interesting tribute to the memory of the late Col. Miller. He was followed by Rev. J. T. McBryde, D. D., who delivered a memorial address on Mrs. Orr. In the afternoon Col. J. L. Orr delivered a very instructive and interesting address. It was decided to abandon Sandy Springs as a permanent place of meeting, and to meet alternately in Oconee, Anderson and Abbeville Counties. The next meeting will be held in Oconee.

The following resolutions were unanimously adopted by the Survivors' Association:

Resolved, That this Association has heard with sincere regret of the recent death of John Gray, a survivor of Co. B.

Resolved, That we will always hold in grateful remembrance the gallant services he rendered his adopted home in time of trouble.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to his brother, Matthew Gray, 80 Washington street, Glasgow, Scotland, and to his family in this country.

Resolved, That our heartfelt sympathies be extended to the bereaved widow and children and a copy of these resolutions be sent to them.

Resolved, That a page of our Minute Book be inscribed to his memory.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the newspapers of the counties from which the Regiment was formed.

Resolved, That this Association has heard with genuine sorrow of the death of John G. C. Kruse, who occurred in Hamburg, Germany, May 11th, 1899.

Resolved, That his unswerving services to his adopted country in the Confederate army will not be forgotten.

Resolved, That a page in our Minute Book be inscribed to his memory.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the newspapers of the counties from which the Regiment was formed.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to his family in Germany, and that a page in our Minute Book be inscribed to his memory.

MARY J. ORR.

As survivors we have lost one of our best friends, and we would offer the following:

Resolved, First, That as survivors of Orr's Regiment we have learned with unfeigned sorrow of the death of her whom we proudly, lovingly, called the "mother of Orr's Regiment."

Resolved, Second, That we desire in this public manner to place ourselves on record as sustaining in the death of Mrs. Orr an irreparable loss.

Resolved, Third, That remembering with delight her untiring devotion to all whose names were on our roll, coupled with her strenuous efforts to honor and encourage us with her presence at these reunions, we pledge ourselves to make greater efforts to attend.

Resolved, Fourth, That we extend to the family of Mrs. Orr our truest sympathies in their irreparable loss.

Resolved, Fifth, That these resolutions be published in our State and county papers.

THE DEPARTED OLD HEROES.

Whereas, since our last reunion several of our comrades have passed over the river and are resting under the shade of the trees. Therefore be it

Resolved, First, That we sadly miss their presence and we tender to their families our deepest sympathies in their loss.

Resolved, Second, That their names and these resolutions be recorded in our Minute Book.

Resolved, Third, That a copy of these resolutions be furnished to each family and published in the Abbeville, Anderson, Oconee and Pickens papers.

THE NEXT REUNION.

Committee on arrangements for next reunion: W. A. Barron, Allen Terrell, J. T. Reid, R. Y. H. Lowry.

Lowndesville Locals.

A meeting was opened at the Baptist church Sunday by Rev. T. A. Reid, in the absence of the pastor, Rev. J. A. Brown, of Due West, who was unfortunately detained by the illness of Mrs. Brown. Rev. Mr. Singleton, of Pendleton, who is expected to arrive this (Monday) afternoon, will conduct the services, which will be protracted several days.

Miss Luna Agnew, a popular young lady of Donalds, is visiting Miss Meta Allen.

Miss Annie L. Liddell is visiting friends at Milledgeville.

Mr. R. L. Stevenson is putting up the walls of the oil mill in a hustling and business-like manner, and his brick mill is still busily at work.

Mr. W. A. Speer, who has been putting in the Muger Cotton Gin system for the Oil Co., has finished the work, and leaves behind him a complete and almost perfect system which will improve cotton samples very much. As soon as the engine and boilers arrive, and can be set up the plant will be ready for work.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Speer, of Anderson, are visiting the father of the former, Dr. A. J. Speer.

M. D. HORTON.

Personal Mention.

From the Hartwell (Ga.) Sun.

Miss Corrie Brown, of Anderson, S. C., is visiting relatives in Hartwell.

Mr. M. G. Bowie and wife, of Starr, S. C., are visiting relatives in Hartwell.

Mrs. A. W. Adams and family with Miss Grace Benson, left Monday for a visit to relatives in Anderson, S. C.

Mr. W. H. McPhail and wife, of Moscow, Anderson county, S. C., have been the guests of the family of Mr. J. M. Thornton this week.

Mrs. J. C. Stribling, of Pendleton, S. C., (nee Miss Virginia Hunter, who used to visit our town and was quite a popular young lady here) is now visiting the family of Mr. S. W. Peek and other relatives, accompanied by her son, Mr. Jesse C. Stribling, Jr., student of Clemson College, and charming young daughter, Miss Leiza.

Sheriff Johnston says when he went over to South Carolina, to Sinal campmeeting he saw a curious sight—the campmeeting at high pressure with a revolving steam flying jenny on the grounds at the time. From the crowded appearance of the latter it looked as if quite a large number of the brethren were bound for heaven by the flying-jenny route.

At Mt. Sinal.

MR. EDITOR: I see from the correspondent of Holland's Store that something is said about the "flying-jenny" at Sinal Campmeeting. He has forgotten that all things are right at a negro camp, and more especially at one of Anderson County's Representatives is at it and conducting a beer stand, selling cigars and other things that would tempt a negro to part with his money.

Now, Mr. Editor, "Hark!" must have noted, for this Representative, the part would not so conspicuously omitted to have mentioned him. We would like to know if "Hark!" was present and saw this ungodly sight of the "flying-jenny," and what became of him that he did not see our Representative selling on the Sabbath, and by his example saying to our young boys, "It is all right. I am your Representative and whatever I do you have no right to question?"

TALK NO. 7.

I CAN'T SEE AS

WELL AS I SHOULD,

Is a complaint you hear, not only from older people, but from young as well. Age is no criterion for the wearing of glasses. Many are born with greater defects than come with age. Young people inherit and cultivate defects by strain and abuse. Young, old or middle aged, if you are not getting the service from your eyes that you think you should, don't delay if they bother you at all, way, have them examined and properly corrected at once. The longer they are deprived of the aid they need, the weaker they become. I know what I am talking about. That friend (P) who tells you to put off wearing glasses just as long as possible doesn't. Lost sight is seldom regained, but faulty vision can be corrected by the proper glasses. The part of wisdom will be to take no risk, but have your eyes examined and tested so you may be sure about them.

Respectfully,
A. C. STRICKLAND.

TEETH AND TOE NAIL!

—OR—
Who Shall and who Shan't!

Did you ever see a grain of corn thrown to a dozen chickens and see the rough and tumble scramble that took place? And then did you notice one just a little more nimble than the rest swallowed that grain of corn? In the picture before you that nimble fellow is the indomitable C. S. Minor.

Did you ever see a lively-looking pig with an ear of corn held tightly between the teeth, plunging rapidly down the lane, and all the common herd tumbling after, squealing for that ear of corn? In the picture before you C. S. Minor is that leading horse, and the Ten Cent Store is the winner.

Notice he doesn't stop to eat nor look back at competition, but pushes right on. Did you ever witness a horse race and see the one well-rounded, muscular animal, with a little more spirit than his fellows, cross the tape full ten paces in the lead, while the others cross in a flock, possibly neck for neck, and shoulder for shoulder. In the picture before you C. S. Minor is that leading horse, and the Ten Cent Store is the winner.

With merchants the 21st day of August is the last day of the business year. The last spurt is on, and C. S. Minor and the Great and Good Ten Cent Store is first to sniff the goal. For the next few days let pandemonium reign, and disgruntled competition give vent to groans and regrets; but the inexorable C. S. Minor and the Ten Cent Store shall push right on rejoicing with such prices as these:

Men's Straw Hats 10c.
Women's Straw Hats 10c.
Girls' Tam O'Shanter Hats 5c.
Men's Crash Hats 15c.
Men's Velvet Hats 25c.

10-yard pieces Baby or Shoe String Ribbon, any color, for 5c. Imperial Perfumed Salts, delightful, exhilarating, relieves headache and nervousness from smelling, price 5c. A few more Palm-to-Fans, present weather necessary, five for 50—your pick them. Good Cheating Tobacco—the Judge—24c. lb., 3c. plug. Cold Cream and Honey Toilet Soap now 5c. Cake. Turkish Bath Soap two for 5c. Good White Brooms at 3c. Lamp Burners 4c. each, extra large Burners 5c. Genuine Silk Umbrellas, the $1.00 article, heavy cloth, good handles, now 40c. Stone China Bowls and Pitchers.

Misses Tan Hose, all sizes, ribbed at 5c. pair. Good Pins 1c. a paper. Heavy Domestic Checked Homespun 27 yards for $1.00. A good quality Wool Cashmere Pants, cloth dark or light, home stretch, 24c. yard. Heavy Cotton Kersey at 9c. yard. Brabant's Best Needles, Sharps or Blunts, at 5c. Paper, or six for 25c.

12 lbs. good Soda for 5c. Buggy Whips 5c., 7c., 10c. and 15c. Alarm Clocks 40c. each. Southern Beauty Shoes, any style, at $1.00 per pair, and half your money back on every tenth pair. Any other Shoes to suit you and prices right. Some Sox at two pair for 5c.

Now, let us tell you a secret. We used to think that if we had the lowest price or the best Goods for the money everybody would trade with us, but there are some who are afraid to buy Goods at such reasonable prices. Nothing but high prices will convince them that the Goods are all right. That'll do for the rich, but the poor—oh, where are they? We have the rich man's Goods at the poor man's prices.

Come to see us now while it is not too late.

Yours always truly,
C. S. MINOR and
THE TEN CENT STORE.

The Alliance Store

We sell Goods Cheap, but we do not sell Cheap Goods.

August must be kept busy irrespective of profit. Reduced prices which we now sell apply not only to Goods of Fashion but to styles as "Staples" are Goods used the year round, not subject to change of style, therefore seldom offered at a sacrifice. Our prices rule lower than wholesale rates. Nevertheless, for the balance of this month as an inducement we will sell even lower, feeling that the money-saving opportunity will be so quickly recognized that our sales will be doubled.
